Top five Chablis vintages to drink now

Andy Howard MW evaluates recent tastings and identifies the best wines from five Chablis vintages worth opening and drinking at the moment...

Domaine William Fèvre, Côte Bouguerots, Chablis, Bougros, Burgundy, 2015 - 97

From just over two hectares planted on the steepest part of the vineyard. Pungent yet elegant white peach nose displaying discreet power. Fine attack, precise and lifted, with ample fruit and a light touch. Silky and refined with a clear minerality on the finish. Not a flashy style, but tense...
